U.S. Gives New Mideast Ideas To UN

Ike Reveals Proposals At News Conference

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower revealed today that the United States has submitted to the United Nations new proposals for dealing with the Middle East situation.

But the President made it clear at his news conference that it is up to the U.N. to take the lead in making arrangements for negotiations aimed at settling problems of the troubled Middle East.

Mr. Eisenhower gave no details of the U.S. proposals which he said have been communicated to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. But he said Ham-

Ike To Cruise

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower today announced that he expects to leave by Navy cruiser from Norfolk, Va. late Thursday for a leisurely cruise to Bermuda where he is due March 20.

He told his news conference today, however, that he had decided not to go to Florida, but would seek out sunshine aboard a Navy cruiser during what he called a very slow trip to Bermuda.

Hamarskjöld plans to leave for the Middle East Saturday.

The President said he had not heard of late news reports from Cairo to the effect that the U.N. and Egypt had agreed that Egypt will take over civil administration of the Gaza Strip.

A newsman asked the President whether he would like to see Egypt delay plans to take over civil administration of Gaza.

Without replying directly, the President said he would like to see arrangements made which the U.N. and Hammarskjöld believe would be most effective in bringing (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2)

Airline bomb scare in New York, Philadelphia.

Screwball pranksters with a diabolical sense of humor, probably, and the kind that should be scooped up by police and socked into the pokie for the rest of their lives.

Bill Levitt fires a neat barrage at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce for its typically shortsighted and rather ridiculous suggestion that most forms of federal housing aid be halted and he's right.

The U.S. Chamber, still much a symbol of the past, does some pretty fuzzy thinking occasionally. It's rather stupid stand against federal aid for education, as another example.

Burlington county, our neighbor just across the river, does another nifty, we see by the papers.

This time it takes the first step—officially—toward creation of a $30,000,000 jet-age international airport. We'll say one thing. Somebody over thataway is using a generous quantity of practical vision.

Ike's cold much better, his doctors report after another checkup.

Okay, better or not, it's time the President shoves off on that Bermuda vacation he's been talking about and which he richly deserves. We've never yet seen a cold persist under two solid weeks of tropical sunshine.

Sunshine? Hey, spring slipping in real easy-like. And we've never known a time when it was more welcome.

It won't be long—storm winds down, screens up, lawnmowers buzzing, air-conditioners purring and gracious living all over again under the skies. Want to bet? After a week of it we'll be yapping for some of the cool breezes we've been hollering about for the past four months.

If thoughts could be read, faces would be redder.

A feather in your cap is more important than a bee in your bonnet.

Take it easy—the driving.

Julia Hilsbos, Bensalem Tax Collector, Offers To Take 'Drastic' Salary Cut

Bensalem Tax Collector Mrs. Julia Hilsbos tonight will follow the precedent set last month by Robert Cameron, Bristol Township tax collector, when she offers to take a "drastic cut" in her commission for collecting school taxes.

Walter Hilsbos, husband of the Bensalem collector, announced she would give a letter to the township school board offering to cut her one-and-a-half per cent commission on school taxes starting next year—if she is reelected.

He made the announcement at the same time he revealed his wife would seek reelection to the post.

Last month Cameron, at the request of the Bristol Township School Board, agreed to take a $23,000 cut in commissions on school taxes during the last six months of 1957.

The board has asked him to cut his commission from two per cent to one per cent. Cameron agreed. This would leave him with $23,000 in commissions from school taxes plus $6000 from county taxes.

The Bristol Township board later went further and set a flat salary of $12,000 for the tax collector, starting next year.

Hilsbos would not reveal how much of a cut his wife would offer to take. He said that would come out at tonight's meeting of the school board.

He said that last year she received a total of $16,000 in commissions and "cleared" about $6000 after expenses.

The Township Board of Supervisors at its March 4 meeting instructed its solicitor to draw up an ordinance fixing a salary for the tax collector.

A quick glance at the list of names of the guiding lights in the Levittown Public Library's $50,000 fund drive reveals a "Who's Who" of Levittown.

Daniel Miller, 41 Silverbell road, Snowball Gate, owner of the Keystone Pencil Company in Tullytown, heads the drive.

The ex-lawyer, father of three young daughters, said recently, "Books and money have always played an important part in my life. I accepted chairmanship of the drive in order to help provide decent library facilities for the thousands of children growing up in Levittown.

"I can realize the importance of a well functioning library, since I spent a great deal of time in a library during the time I sat on the Board of Review at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C."

At one time Mr. Miller served in the Congressional liaison division in the office of Secretary of the Air Force, Thomas K. Finletter.

About five years ago, he decided to go into the mail order business and opened a mail order house in Tullytown, which has developed into the second largest of its kind in the United States.

Co-chairman of the drive is Albert Robertson, 90 Pinewood drive, a district representative for the Yardley perfume and toilet water company.

According to his wife, Jaye, Al's first love is his eight-month-old daughter, Vivian, then the library, and finally, his wife.

Quite an avid reader himself, Al spends all his spare time reading and maintains other persons should read more, too.

He was appointed to the Library Council by the Levittown (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2)

Levitt Tells Congress

Home Building Hits Depression

WASHINGTON (UP)—Builder William Levitt, testifying yesterday before House sub-committee studying new legislative proposals to bolster the homebuilding industry, said that home construction has collapsed into an economic depression.

Levitt, president of Levitt & Sons, builders of Levittown, Pa., and Levittown, N. Y., proposed three immediate steps: lower down payment for home buyers, elimination of the one-half per cent service charge of mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration and an increase in FHA interest rates to make them

"realistic and competitive." Levitt, urging fast action by Congress, pointed out that housing starts dropped 22 per cent in 1956 to a total of slightly more than one million. This year, he said, housing starts have already fallen off to a rate of 900,000 and may drop to 800,000 before the year ends.

He said that nothing can be done about the 1957 housing program since the industry "is a complicated manufacturing process and you cannot turn it on and off like a faucet."

But he said action can be taken (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

Reappraisal Begins Soon

Bucks County's $435,000 reappraisal program will get into full swing in the near future, members of the Bucks County Assessors Association were told last night at a meeting in Doylestown.

The program, which will take about two years to complete, will begin with actual field work in Bristol Borough and Township, Bensalem Township, and other areas along the Delaware River.

The operation was explained to the assessors by Eric Merrell, job supervisor for the firm of Cole, Lyster and Trumbull, of Dayton, Ohio, which is handling the project.

County residents will assist key men from the Dayton firm in the field work. At present, there are 104,000 separate parcels to be reappraised and re-assessed if necessary.

Stadium Preview At Delhaas Tonite

Area residents will get a sneak preview of plans for the proposed community stadium tonight at a public meeting to be held in Delhaas high school.

Everyone is invited to the meeting, according to Mrs. William McDowney, chairman of the Delhaas PTA which initiated the drive.

In addition to showing the plans, a panel discussion will be held followed by a public question and answer period.

Car Demolished

Bristol Nurse Is Seriously Injured

A Bristol nurse is in serious condition today in Lower Bucks County Hospital following an auto-truck collision last night in Bensalem Township, hospital officials disclosed.

The nurse, Mrs. Kathryn E. Coffey, of 1810 Benson Place, was rushed to the hospital by the Bucks County Rescue Squad and treated for a jaw injury, fractured ribs, possible fractured knee cap, and cuts and bruises about the face and body.

Returning Home
Bensalem police, investigating the Eddington accident, said Mrs.

Coffey, a nurse at Philadelphia's General Hospital, was returning home on Route 13, about 11:40 p.m. when the collision occurred.

Skid Marks
Patrolmen Frank Wolanik and Joseph Picciotti said they thought it was a head-on collision when they arrived. Police said the Coffey car was tangled behind the left front wheel of the furniture van.

Forty-five feet of straight skid marks led to the wreck scene, police said, indicating the Bristol (Continued on Page 3, Col. 7)

Ike Declares Beck Wrong In Accusation

President Says Removal Didn't 'Prejudge' Case

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower said today that Teamsters President Dave Beck was wrong in charging that the administration "prejudged" the union's case before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Beck had complained that his removal from the U.S. delegation to the international Labor Conference in Geneva had this effect.

Mr. Eisenhower told his news conference that Beck's statement was wrong. It was exactly because the administration did not want to prejudice the case that Beck was removed, he said.

The President said he conferred with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell before the secretary canceled plans to have Beck as a member of the U.S. delegation.

Meanwhile, a member of the Senate committee charges that a Teamsters council on the West Coast had falsified its books.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (RSD), a member of the rackets committee, pounced on an entry in the books of Teamsters Joint Council 37 which listed payment of a $21,500 hotel bill for Thomas E. Maloney, Portland, Ore. The check was listed under expense al- (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

Philharmonic Sets Soloist

"Seddon Carrow will be the soloist for the March 17th and 22nd concerts of the Delaware Valley Philharmonic Orchestra," Henry Kerr Williams, Music Director and Conductor of the Orchestra, announced today. "We are delighted to have Dr. Carrow play with us and know that our patrons will enjoy the program Williams said. "We have planned an excellent program for our fourth concert series and know that it will delight our audience."

Dr. Carrow will play Handel's Organ Concerto accompanied by the Orchestra. The Orchestra will also play Bach's Brandenburg Concerto Number 2 and Tchaikovsky's "Pathétique" Symphony. Tickets for the Fourth concert Series may be obtained by "phoning the Orchestra office, 19 South Main street, Yardley—HY 3-6698, any morning or HY 3-2462, W1 5-2661 afternoon and evenings, it has been announced. In the Industrial Relations Department, Bruce F. Glen was advanced to supervisor, Employment and Placement, and Orville L. Cluck was named supervisor,

Gaza Crisis Mounts With New Warning

Ben-Gurion Lashes Out As U.N. Tries To Settle Dispute

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion said today Israel would take military action against Egypt if the Gaza crisis is not solved through political negotiations.

He told the Israeli parliament in Jerusalem that if the time came for military action Israel would strike and "would not, of course, give prior notice of its action."

The crisis was heightened by an announcement in Gaza that "an unidentified group of men" last night blew up a section of the railroad leading to Israel and cut off telephone communications between Gaza and Israel.

Arab refugees in the Gaza Strip have protested the use of the railroad to bring in U.N. relief supplies via Israel.

Calls Nasser
U.N. Assistant Secretary General Ralph Bunche called on Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo as Ben-Gurion was speaking and made a direct attempt to settle the Gaza crisis.

Bunche had with him a message from Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld regarding Egypt's announcement it will take over administration of the Gaza Strip "forthwith" — an announcement that plunged the Mideast once again into crisis.

Ben-Gurion survived two motions of non-confidence posed by his opposition political parties after reassuring the lawmakers Israel would not take lying down Egypt's return to the Gaza Strip. Ben-Gurion won the votes although one of his own coalition parties, the Abduh Avoda, walked out of the chamber.

Ben-Gurion laid part of the blame on "big powers" he did not name and sharply criticized the United Nations for putting its prestige and the feelings of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser ahead of Middle East peace. He ended his speech with the statement that if the time came "when action by Israel would be appropriate and necessary, the government would not, of course, give prior notice of its action."

Temperature To Top 60 Again

Soft, lazy zephyrs of spring floated into Lower Bucks today bringing temperatures in the 60's and a promise of the sunny season only a week away.

The smell of the season was in the air and the cruel winds of March seemed pushed away by a balmy haze which hung over the area this morning.

Afternoon temperatures were expected to reach close to the record high for the date of 68 set 30 years ago.

Mild readings and fair skies were in the Weather Bureau forecast for tonight with some cloudiness expected tomorrow.

Burlo Plans $30,000,000 Jet Airport

Burlington County freeholders moved toward creating a $30,000,000 jet age international airport in South Jersey to serve coastal cities from Boston to Norfolk.

Freeholders yesterday voted approval of an application for $200,000 in Federal funds for a preliminary engineering survey of a 20,000 acre site in South Burlington County's thinly-settled pine country.

Three-mile runways for jet transport planes arriving from Europe are planned, with shuttle planes to Washington and Boston and helicopter service to New York City and Philadelphia also in the planning stages.

The announcement came from Freeholder Director Charles V. Dickinson of Palmyra and Mt. Holly's George M. Rogers, executive secretary of the Burlington County Planning Board.

Federal Aid

The project will be paid for at least 75 per cent by Federal aid and the survey cost would not have to be paid by the county unless the airport is located there, Rogers said.

A special authority set up by the state, similar to highway authorities, would govern the airport.

Firemen Plan Training Class

Levittown Fire Company No. 2 will participate in a fire training program this spring it was announced at a company meeting last night.

Over 60 members attended the meeting in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Woodbourne road, Levittown.

Plans were formulated for the annual membership drive, which will continue through the month. Vernon E. Hutchinson, 278 Apple-tree Drive, Levittown, said anyone desiring more information about membership should contact him at WI 5-3212.

It was stated that negotiations for a loan for the construction of a new firehouse are continuing. The building will be constructed at Five Points, Levittown.

The company responded to 11 fires in February. Fire damage was estimated at $22,000. An average of 28 men attended each fire and served a total of 281 man hours.

Pupils Suffer Gym Injuries

Three Levittown pupils were injured in accidents during gym classes at school this week.

George Rinehold, 13, of 5 Jade lane, Junewood, Levittown, suffered a fracture of his left forearm when he lost his balance while dismounting from equipment in the gymnasium of Benjamin Franklin Junior High school. He is an eighth grade pupil.

He was treated at Lower Bucks County Hospital and discharged after his arm was set and placed in a cast.

Rosemary Hunsaker, 16, of 62 New Pond lane, North Park, was admitted to the Orthopedic Hospital, Trenton, Monday, with a fractured right elbow. She fell as she dismounted from gym apparatus at Pennsbury High School while preparing for the school's annual "Sports Night" program.

Peter Schmidt, 13, of 37 Summer lane, Stonybrook, fell five feet from rings in the gymnasium of Benjamin Franklin Junior High School Monday. He was treated at Lower Bucks County Hospital for a possible brain concussion and then discharged.

Washing Machine Alarm Answered

A smoking washing machine brought Levittown Fire Company No. 1 to the home of Francis J. Rank, 10 Butterfly lane, Birch Valley, Levittown, yesterday afternoon.

There was no damage other than the washing machine.

Other drive leaders include housewives, a mortician, a lawyer, a retired executive, and a former publicist.

Only Mrs. Mary Hickey, who lives at 23 Nasturtium lane, North Park, the former publicist, has had previous library experience. During her college days, she served on a library staff but has since turned to publicity work.

Charles Fink, 51 Silver Birch road, is a lawyer and real estate broker and is president of the Library Council.

One of the biggest and most responsible jobs of the drive is, of course, the handling of money. The manager of the Levittown Branch of the Philadelphia National Bank, Robert Rockhill, 44 Pebble lane, Pinewood, has assumed this position.

Mrs. Sandra Kershaw, 154 Upper Orchard drive, heads the Women's Division, while Mrs. Betty Gerrard, 105 Crabtree drive, will supervise the typists' pool. Both are housewives.

Another housewife behind the library drive is Mrs. Evelyn McCargar, 9 Favored lane, Farmbrook. Mrs. McCargar and her husband, Donald, have been instrumental in library affairs since it first opened.

W. Eugene Beck, a mortician, is chairman of the Business and Professional Division, and a retired Sears-Roebuck executive, David Hodgins, 18 Sycamore road, Snowball Gate, heads the Industrial and Special Gifts Committee.

Stabber Put On Probation

A Bristol Terrace II woman will have the next 23 months in which to recognize that stabbing another person can be costly.

The woman, Carrie Brewington, 630 Court C, will have to make periodic visits to the county probation officer during that time, and if she gets in any further trouble, she'll spend the balance of it in prison.

Judge I. Louis Rubin, in ordering the probation period, also imposed a fine of $300 on her, plus costs of prosecution.

She admitted stabbing Wilbur Robinson, 525 Maple street, Bristol, in the left eye with a paring knife on the night of Dec. 25.

The woman was arrested by The stabbing took place at 2 a.m. at a hoagie shop at 321 Magnolia road, Bristol Terrace.

Players Set Opening Of 'Tender Trap'

By BILL WINTERS
Courier and Times Staff Writer

The Levittown Players are ready to present their 17th offering tonight with a performance of "The Tender Trap" that should surpass all of their previous productions.

After a slow start at a full-dress rehearsal last night, the cast swings into tune with the tempo of the fast-paced romantic comedy, bringing the story to a crescendo climax.

George Bennett plays his first lead role with the group as eligible New York bachelor Charlie Reader, who is kept busy side-stepping the advances of a number of luscious altar-minded career girls.

Holding the rail positions in the race for Charlie's affection and name are Simone Wiler as Julie Gillis and Agnes Sadow as Sylvia Crewes—both veterans of the players group, who turn in excellent performances in the stretch drive for Charlie's heart.

And there hangs the story that promises an enjoyable evening for theatregoers at the Walt Disney school, Lakeside section, Levittown, tonight through Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Hearts and Flowers

Also runs in the hearts and flowers race are Jessica Collins and Poppy Matson. Thoroughbred acting performances are brought to these roles by Alison Yates (Jessica) and Marilou Loughlin (Poppy).

Carrying the male honors along with bachelor Charlie are three players well known to area audiences in Don Ringkamp, Frank Lombardi and Ben Podolsky.

Tonight's presentation of the play, which is under the co-direction of Doug Bott and Faith Murray, will be a benefit performance for the Emerson PTA.

Delhaas PTA To Hear Talk

Dr. John G. Berrier, director of off-campus division at Temple University, will relate "How the Junior College will Serve Our Youth," at a meeting tomorrow night of the Delhaas High School PTA.

Following a brief business session scheduled for 8 p.m., Dr. Berrier will point out the many advantages of the Bucks County Center of Temple University.

Interstate Marine Group To Meet

The Interstate Marine Association will meet at the Torresdale Rescue Squad headquarters, Ardendel and Melrose streets, Torresdale, Philadelphia, 8 p.m. Thursday.

Training films will be shown.

Democrats Name County Candidates

The Bucks County Democratic executive committee today announced the slate of candidates for county offices in the May primary.

County Chairman James C. Bowen, stressed the "outstanding efforts" of Democratic Commissioners Welsh and Andrews in handling the affairs of the county since taking office, Jan. 1, 1956.

"Record Of Achievement"

Mr. Bowen said his party stands on its record of "efficiency on other well run Democratic departments," and "we propose to back outstanding candidates who will go before the voters this fall, pledged to continue that record of achievement."

Quakertown's Raymond E. Strunk has been endorsed as a candidate for sheriff. Strunk, 57, is presently fire marshal of Bucks County. A deputy sheriff from 1940 to 1949, he was again appointed a deputy sheriff for fire investigations in 1954.

He is a charter member and president of the Bucks County Fire Police Association. Strunk is married to the former Daisy Bergey. The Strunks have two married daughters.

Robert E. Frederick, 2 Astor lane, Levittown, is the party's choice for controller. Frederick has served as financial statement analyst for Pennsylvania Company for Banking and Trusts.

A former president of Levittown Civic Association, Frederick now serves as head of the Bucks County Personal Property Tax Department.

Noted Impressionist Added For Concert

Stan Lee, noted impressionist, has been added to the program for the Blind Artists' concert which will be held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school. The program will start at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Lee will appear here fresh from a successful night club tour in Philadelphia and other areas. The concert is sponsored by the Levittown Lions club. The club will use the proceeds to further its aid to the blind.

On Program

Artists who will also appear on the program are Catherine Deraco, soprano; Gerald McCarthy violinist; Luigi Boccelli, tenor, and Bernard J. Cortese, at the piano.

Mr. Boccelli originated the idea of concerts by blind musicians.

The program Tuesday night will start with Miss Deraco, who will sing Mozart's "Alleluia," and Verdi's "Ah Forse L'ui" from "La Traviata."

Mr. McCarthy will follow with "Introduction" and "Rondo Capriccioso" by Saint Saens.

Tenor Selections

There will be three tenor selections by Mr. Boccelli. He will sing "Vado Ben Specco," by Rossini; "Absent," by Metcalf, and "Chloe," by Moret.

Mr. Boccelli and Miss Deraco

will then join in a duet to sing a selected medley.

After an intermission Mr. Lee will give some of his famed impressions and Miss Deraco will give a reading on first aid.

Violin Renditions

Mr. McCarthy will return to give violin renditions of "Liebesfreud" and "Londonery Air," by Kreisler, and "Czardas," by Monti.

This will be followed by two soprano solos "Begin the Beguine," by Porter and selections from Loewe's "My Fair Lady."

As a finale Miss Deraco and Mr. Boccelli will team up again for a medley of songs from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma."

The troupe has put on numerous concerts throughout the country and have been accorded wide acclaim for their performances and musical talents.

Morrisville CD To Join Meeting

Morrisville's Civil Defense committee on survival will meet with representatives of other CD units of Lower Bucks tonight at the Morrisville Borough Hall in a re-organization session.

The survival committee will attempt to coordinate the efforts of many of the Lower Bucks units in case of emergency.

The meeting was called by Morrisville CD director Edwin Price and will be attended by representatives of Levittown, Bristol, Fairless Hills, Pennell, and other Lower Bucks communities.

The survival committee was originally formed at the request of Col. A. M. Heritage, Bucks County CD director.

Ament represents the Anchor Fence company of Merchantville, N. J.

Parked Truck Is Damaged In Accident

A parked truck was damaged in an odd accident on North Radcliffe street recently.

The truck, owned by Anthony Conti, of 85 North Radcliffe street, was parked in front of his home, Saturday evening.

A car driven by an unidentified motorist stopped to make a left turn, and another car, driven by James A. Gallagher, 29, of 26 Flower lane, Levittown, stopped behind it, according to Bristol Township police.

A third car, driven by James J. Nebauer, 42, 1815 Chelsea road, Philadelphia, struck Gallagher's car in the rear, police said.

The impact drove Gallagher's car forward. It hit the first car in the rear. At the same time Gallagher turned his wheel to avoid the first car and struck the truck. The first car continued on without stopping.

Damage to the truck was estimated at $125, while Gallagher's car sustained about $450 and Nebauer's auto about $600. Patrolman Aaron Kelton reported.

Chief John R. Stewart said that while the driver of the first car should have stopped police are not looking for him since he was not at fault.

Mrs. Jessica Heaton, vice president, will preside over the meeting, in the illness of the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Moosa.

Bingo, Raffles Law Being Discussed

Members of the Pennsylvania Association of First Aid and Rescue Squads were urged to support a number of bills before Congress and the State Legislature at their monthly meeting last night.

The meeting was held at the Bucks County Rescue Squad headquarters, with 78 members from 16 squads attending. Squads represented came from Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware and Northampton counties as well as Philadelphia.

Surplus Materials

It was pointed out that Congress is considering a bill which would authorize distribution of surplus government materials to volunteer fire companies and ambulance corps.

The state is discussing two bills which would permit non-profit and charitable organizations to conduct bingo and raffles. Individual members were asked to support these bills.

Clarence Bixler, Bristol Township CD director, was the main speaker of the evening. He discussed federal matching funds available to first aid groups engaged in civil defense.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the Burholme Rescue Squad on April 9.

Hayes' Will Inventoried

An inventory amounting to $167,923 in the estate of William H. Hayes, Lower Makefield township, was filed yesterday in the County Register of Wills office.

A will, probated earlier, placed the estate in trusts for Hayes' wife, Ann C., and his sister, Dorothy, of Yardley.

The will also stipulates that on the deaths of his wife and sister the trust funds will revert to the William H. and Anna C. Hayes Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Income from the scholarship trusts will be used to "award scholarships to graduates or deserving students of Pennsbury High school."

at statements by Bunche to the effect the U.N. forces were in Gaza with Egyptian consent.

He said it was not within the power of "the Egyptian dictator" to "agree or disagree," since he was "ignominiously expelled from the Gaza Strip."

Administration officials in Washington warned that Egypt's new tough talk about taking over the Gaza Strip would bring about a grave new crisis if the words are put into action.

The Egyptian action brought the sharpest criticism of the United States in London and Paris since the Suez invasion damaged American relations with Britain and France.

Kaiser To Lay Off 150 As Sales Fall

Sales of porcelain enamel sinks and bathtubs have declined 20 per cent in the past few months, a Kaiser Metal Products, Inc., spokesman announced today.

As a result, he said, about 150 workmen will be laid off this week at the Bristol plant. Only sink and tub production is affected by the cutback.

"National housing starts are about 20 percent lower this year than in 1956," the company pointed out, "which is undoubtedly the cause of the drop in orders for tubs and sinks."
